Your Highness,

I am writing to express my concern about Dr. Abduljalil al-Singace who is serving a life sentence for his peaceful role in Bahrain's 2011 uprising. He has been imprisoned for over 11 years, solely for exercising his rights to freedom of expression and peaceful assembly.

A year ago, Dr. Al-Singace began his hunger strike to protest the prison authorities' confiscation of his book on Bahraini dialects that he spent four years researching and writing. On 29 June, Dr. Al-Singace announced that he would also stop taking salts – which stabilize his health while abstaining from food – to protest the authorities' failure to grant him his prescribed medication.

I call upon your Highness to release Dr. Abduljalil al-Singace immediately and unconditionally. In the meantime, I urge you to ensure he receives his medication without delay and has access to adequate healthcare and is protected from further torture. I also call on you to ensure that his work is immediately handed over to his family.

Thank you for your attention. I am looking forward to your reply.

Yours sincerely,
